Interesting Phrases or Quotes

I have been fortunate to rub shoulders with a lot of wise people during my 38 years as a veterinarian. I have often been “hit” by a phrase that sums up a particular situation perfectly. I want to share a few of them with you.

- Many a true word is said in jest.
- Never put off until tomorrow what you can get done today.
- It is not what you think you are that holds you back, it's what you think you are not.
- Doing things right or doing the right thing.
- The average cost of production is the average market price.
- Twenty percent of the people own 80% of the wealth.
- If it's to be, it's up to me.
- A job well started is half finished.
- Dwell on the solution, not the problem.
- Profit is the result of services provided.
- If it isn't broke, don't fix it.
- Try to see things as if the glass is half full rather than half empty.
- Many hands make light work.
- Several heads are better than one.
- Vacation is not a luxury. It is a necessity.
- There are two kinds of fools. Those who listen to everyone and those who listen to no one.
- Every time you point a finger, four fingers point back.
- This too shall pass.
- The wise adjust.
- You need to put wood in the stove before you get heat.
- Lead, follow, or get out of the way.
- It is better to remain silent and let people suspect that you are stupid than to open your mouth and remove all doubt.
- A man who smokes a pip always seems to be intelligent. Probably because he has a chance to think for a moment while removing the pipe before he speaks.
- There is no such thing as “no time. Only priorities.
- Good enough – isn't!

Have a good summer.
